SENIOR CLASS

Ann McAuliffe, '53

Graduation — the big moment, the most anticipated moment in the lives of the fifty-two Seniors of Scituate High School, has finally come. We are all eagerly looking forward to taking our places in the world to pursue our life's ambitions and to do our best to be worthy citizens. A whole new life awaits us upon our graduation.

Now that the time has come to leave dear old Scituate High, we look back on the fun, the work, and the experiences which we have shared together and which we will long remember.

We began our illustrious senior year by electing Bill Vines as president, Judy Lawson as vice-president, Lois Newcomb as secretary for her third term, and Michael Veiga, as treasurer. Miss Vinal and Mr. Wilcox were chosen as class advisers.

We were sorry to lose two members of our class this year, Frances Sweeney and Ronald Plescia. Because of a serious illness, Stephen Chadbourne was unable to return to school last fall, but we are all happy to hear that he is much improved in health. We welcomed two new members, Delores Costa from Clinton High School and Hugh MacArthur from Waltham High School.

A large number of our boys helped to make up the rugged football team which gave us so many exciting games this year. They were Walter Stewart, Bob Harris, Dick Loughman, Dick Ford, Neil Towle, Aram Brazilian, Neil Murphy, Bob O'Hern, Mat Brown, Kenneth Brebner, Dick Mendell, Doug Mendell, and Johnny Nitzsche. We were all proud of Dick Loughman, Walter Stewart, Bob Harris, Aram Brazilian, and John Nitzsche, who made the South Shore All-Star Team.

The girls' hockey team also had a good season with the help of Ann Breen, Barbara D'Amelio, Joan McEleney, and Judy Lawson as manager. The girls' basketball season this winter provided many close and thrilling games. The Senior girls on the team who helped bring the team to many victories were Ann Breen and Carolyn Macy.

The 1953 boys' basketball season provided many thrills with an excellent team made up of six senior boys, Walter Stewart, Mike Veiga, Dick Loughman, Bob Dwyer, Doug Mendell, and Bill Vines. Many of the Seniors also displayed their varied skills in baseball, softball, and tennis.

The cheerleaders were wonderful this year. Headed by Izzie Gleason, — Sue Taggart, Elizabeth Grassic, Maureen Glavin, and Lois Newcomb burst forth at every game full of pep and energy, cheering the teams on to victory. What will future athletic games be like without them!

Many Seniors also took an active part in the band and orchestra; and Judy Taylor of our class and the other pert-looking drum majorettes headed by Carolyn Macy added color and gayity to the football games.

We were all proud of the members of our class who have received individual awards through our school years. Last year Robert Dwyer won one of the Good Sports Awards given by the Key Club. Judy Lawson and Matthew Brown won the Good Sports Awards this year. Judy Lawson, who was voted the D. A. R. Good Citizen, was honored at a banquet in Boston with other winners from Massachusetts. Judy Lawson was also second place winner in Plymouth County in the Altrusa Club Essay Contest, and she represented Scituate in the American Legion Oratorical Contest in Bridgewater. Neil Towle was awarded the Bausch-Lomb Award for outstanding work in science. Richard Wiley was elected to represent our school on Good Government Day at the State House in Boston. Beth Bigelow has served as school reporter during the year.

Fourteen members of our class qualified as members of the Pro Merito Society. Many of our Senior boys were members of the Key Club this year.

The principal social event sponsored by the Seniors was their annual Christmas Ball, which was a gay and colorful event and fun for everyone attending.

Many of the talented Seniors took part in the All-School Play "Waltz Time" to make it a success. Those who participated were Donald Jenney, Carolyn Macy, Judy Taylor, Ronnie Howard, Donald Hollis, and David Staffeld.

One of the most outstanding successes of our Senior year was the Senior Class Play, "Mother Is a Freshman." The leads were expertly played by Sue Taggart and Donald Jenney, ably assisted by Judy Taylor, Donald Hollis, Robert O'Hern, Bill Vines, David Staffeld, Carolyn Macy, Lois Newcomb, Evelyn Hatch, Ann McAuliffe, Joan McEleney, Ann Breen, and Maureen Glavin. The prompter was Judy Bongarzone. Many other members of the class also helped to make the play a huge success.

The past four years have flown by quickly, and we shall soon be leaving Scituate High to embark on the individual careers which the future has in store for us. Whatever we may do, the fun, friendships, and knowledge gained during our school years will long be remembered. Classes, the locker room, the crowd in the cafeteria, the dances, our teachers, parties, graduation and all the wonderful activities which have filled our school years will provide pleasant memories long to be remembered in the years to come.

NEIL MURPHY SEEKS SELECTMAN POST 1970

SCITUATE – Mr. Neil J. Murphy has announced that he is a candidate for the office of Selectman and that he will seek election to the three year term this March.

A former elected member and Chairman of the Scituate Planning Board, 1963-1966, and a former appointed member and Chairman of the Scituate Conservation Commission, 1964-1965, Mr. Murphy also served as Chairman of the School Site Selection Committee, a subcommittee of the Planning Board, in 1968.

A Professional Engineer and Land Surveyor in Massachusetts, Mr. Murphy is employed as a Senior Engineer by the Boston firm of Fay, Spofford & Thorndike, Inc. For the past four years he has been the Project Engineer for the firm assigned to the East Central Urban Renewal Area, Worcester, Massachusetts.

A lifelong resident of the Town of Scituate, Mr. Murphy attended the Scituate public schools and graduated from Scituate High School in 1953. He received his B.S. in Civil Engineering from Northeastern University in 1959.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

Jane Graham, '54

Last September when we returned to Scituate High School, we were assigned to Miss Harrington's and Miss Dudley's home rooms; we were at last upperclassmen!

Early in the fall we organized for the year. Our class advisers are Mr. Johnson and Miss Hawkes. Russell Prouty again occupies the president's chair; Donald Roy, as vice president, is ready to fill in whenever he is needed; Phyllis Cahoon, secretary, keeps our records; and Nancy Taggart again serves as treasurer. Out Student Council members are Charles Goddard, vice president of the council; Phyllis Cahoon, secretary; Gladys Clapp, and Donald Roy. We are proud that three Key Club officers are of the Junior Class: John Locke, vice president; Russell Prouty, secretary; and Richard Prouty, treasurer. In all, there are nine Juniors in the Key Club.

Members of our class have participated in the All-School production, the Spring Concert, the band and orchestra, and, of course all athletics. Phyllis Cahoon, Gladys Clapp, and Maureen Stark have proved to be a fine addition to the group of cheerleaders. We must not forget to applaud our junior girls, who proved to be the champions of the intramural basketball games.

Most of us can say that this has been a successful year, and we are looking forward to our senior year, which should be the best of all.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Petrie, W. O'Neil, A. Bowker, R. Mitchell, H. Blanchard, Roger Howard, Robert Howard, C. Gallup.

Martha Laidlaw, '55

The Sophomore Class started the year 1952-1953 by electing the following officers: Peter Stewart, president; Edward Newcomb, vice president: Patricia Newcomb, secretary; and Robert Stewart, treasurer. Our advisers are Miss Gile and Mr. Atkinson.

We welcome the following new students: Harold Blanchard from Sandwich on the Cape; Karen Disbrow from Wellesley; Jack Edwards from Archbishop Williams; Marcia and Edward Newcomb from Quincy; Ronald Kirwood from New York; and June Rhodes from Nürnberg, Germany.

The members of our class have been interested in all school activities this year. Many Sophomore boys participated in football, basketball, and baseball; and the girls were outstanding in field hockey, basketball, tennis, and softball. The Freshman-Sophomore dance was a social success. We were well represented in the All-School Production and the Spring Concert. Also several members of our class were in the band and orchestra.

Our delegates to the Student Council were Letitia Bernard, Donald Cohen, Elizabeth Glavin, and Robert Howard.

Key Club members from our class were Donald Cohen, Richard Mitchell, Peter Stewart, Robert Stewart, and Norman Walker.

We hope in the next two years to make Scituate High School proud of the Class of 1955.

FRESHMAN CLASS

FRESHMAN CLASS NEWS

Beryl Sylvester, '56

Early in September, 1952, the Freshman Class entered Scituate High School, eager to see what senior high school was really like. We welcomed ten new members to our class — Barbara Blanchard, Mark Crocker, Virginia Dorr, John Falvey, Michael Gawkins, John Hoey, Roger Kirwood, Hugh Lynch, Donald Oakes, and Carol Ryan.

In November we held our first class meeting and chose Mrs. Bauer and Mr. Benson as class advisers. We also elected Roger Kirwood as president; Mary Sue Curran as vice president; Phyllis Gleason as secretary, and Deborah Brigham as treasurer.

The Freshmen were well represented in school activities this year with several freshmen in the All-School Play. There were also some of our class who took part in football, field hockey, basketball, and other school sports. Our musically-talented members were in the glee club, the band, and the orchestra.

JUNIOR HIGH

Penny Richards, Grade 8

All of the pupils in grades seven and eight are looking forward to Miss Cuneen's return. Mrs. Bailey and Mr. Merrill were substitutes in her place.

Each division of the Junior High put on an assembly this year, all of them very enjoyable. Mr. Hands' room put on the Columbus Day program; Miss Giles' room presented a program based on the Atomic Age called "Looking for Tomorrow," Mrs. Williams' group had all the presidents of the United States as the basis of their assembly; and Mr. Driscoll's group put on a program about Pan-American Day.

Peter Fryling, Grade 7

In art class all the students are working hard to get their pictures ready for the final exhibition in May.

Blue and White Week was quite successful this year. Both the seventh and eighth grades entered the essay and poster contests with spirit and enthusiasm. Of the pupils who entered the contest from the Junior High, four won prizes,—Joyce Perry and Linda Bailey in the poster division and Edward Dunham and Susanne Hayes in the essay division.

We are all looking forward to next year with its promise of a new building and new opportunities.

THE END AND THE BEGINNING

Judith Lawson, '53

At this time, every year, thousands of young men and women graduate from high school. Graduation is an impressive and important ceremony, for it marks the end of an old way of life and the beginning of a new. At this time, one may look happily at the past and eagerly at the future.

Let us first take a look at the past. These four years have been filled with wonderful memories. Remember how strange high school was at first. Remember the thrill of making a varsity team. Remember what a joy it was to run a successful dance. How proud we were of our athletic teams! How proud we were to be a part of Scituate High School.

As the years went by, there were added memories. The first day of the senior year held a wonderful thrill, for, finally, our class was the top class in Scituate High School. With senior year came added responsibilities. A senior was called upon to supervise and watch over committees working for the school. Members of our senior class captained the athletic teams and starred in the plays. All these activities, accompanied by our own pride in personal accomplishment, have made the years in high school happy and successful.

Now, this is over. At graduation, all these happy moments will become memories of the past. Our careers in high school will be ended.

It is, in some ways, sad to think of this ending. But from sadness comes joy. To us there is, even now, the joy of expectation, the exciting idea of meeting new people and learning new ideas, the thrill of growing up and maturing. After graduation, we shall no longer be thought of as youngsters. We will be adults, living and working in an adult world. We hope that we shall be able to succeed in our own lives, and to give to the world the best we have. May we all work to keep our land a strong, prosperous, free America.

Yes, this is the close of our high school careers. But it is also the opening of the door to the future. The Class of 1953 hopes that it will be a fine example of good living for Scituate High School and for the world.

TIME FOR DECISION

Ruth Mitchell, '54

Again the time has come when a large group of our teenagers have to make one of the most critical decisions of their lives. Graduating students must decide what they are going to do in the future.

The boys wonder whether or not they should sign for their two years in Uncle Sam's services now or try college with the chance of being drafted before they can finish. It is, of course, possible for them to join the R. O. T. C. in college, but they have to make good grades to stay in school under that program.

The girls have come to the time when they, too, have a great decision to make. They have to decide what they want to do in life: whether or not they need a college education; whether they want to be housewives, go into offices or other positions, or join the armed forces like the boys. No matter what their decision, it will be an important one and possibly a turning point in their lives.

The parents of these teenagers are wondering just what the future holds for their children. They hope their boys will not be in the midst of a war as soon as they finish high school. They want to see their children enter college, but not with the fear of being drafted before they have a chance to finish.

The great decision is before these teenagers, and it has to be made now. Is it to be college, work experience, the navy, the air force, the marines? The answer has to be found by every boy and girl in the large group of students who have reached the time for decision. Their parents are hoping and praying that their choices will be right. As fellow teenagers, let us, too, pray for a right decision and a happy future for our graduating class of 1953.

UNCLE SAM AND YOU

Hugh MacArthur, '53

Never before has the imaginative figure representing our country meant as much to a graduating senior as now. Uncle Sam, as spoken of among the boys, means the military service. Each of us is going to have to serve him sooner or later, and "sooner or later" is in the near future.

Let's face it. All of us have to go sometime. College may offer an out for four years or so, but after that we have two choices — enlist or get drafted. If college is not in our path, the Marshfield draft board says that we have from six months to a year before becoming eligible.

There are five branches of the service to choose from — Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard, and Air Force. However, the Navy, Coast Guard, and Air Force are just about filled to capacity, and a long three or four month waiting list confronts the enlistee. This leaves the Army and the Marines to choose from. Since the Army will get most of us, that seems the most important to think about.

First of all are the requirements that must be met: age between seventeen and thirty-four, a good physical condition, a desire to enlist for at least three years, a high school diploma, and a letter of reference as to character and reputation from a responsible citizen. A special examination is made available to those not having graduated from high school.

Thirty or more different courses are offered for which you may apply after having completed sixteen weeks of basic training. If you graduate at the top of your company, you may make application for Officer Candidate School. Here you can develop your talents and learn to be a leader. Graduating as a commissioned second lieutenant, you will find that a rewarding career has blossomed. In any case, as a dogfoot or an officer, you will find that there are six ingredients in the formula for soldier-success. 1. Enter the Army in the right frame of mind; 2. Do your part; 3. Learn as quickly as possible; 4. Know that the Army considers you an important individual; 5. Make up your mind to go all out for the Army and the Army will reciprocate one hundredfold; and 6. Tackle hard any job given you, with the best of your ability.

These were the things the recruiting officer told me when I talked to him in Boston. He also pointed out that after enlisting in the Army or the Air Force, you can continue your education toward a high school diploma, a college degree, or into university graduate school — just as high as you want to go — with the government paying seventy-five per cent of the bill. Maybe the service isn't so bad, after all.

BROTHERHOOD

Donald Jenney, '53

I suppose we all think we know what brotherhood is and believe that we practice it faithfully. But I'm not quite so sure!

I'm not sure we're practicing brotherhood when I hear of the strife in South Africa caused by the futile fight of a down-trodden race of people for education and the rights every human should have without hindrance. This example may seem remote, but to have a true spirit of brotherhood, we must be with these people in our minds if not with our bodies.

To bring things closer to home, I'm not so sure I see Brotherhood shining through when I see discrimination at the very portals of our Democratic Government. I mean, of course, the discrimination in the schools of our nation's capital against the Negroes. The very thought of separating the minds of the white and colored violates every true democratic principle for which our country stands and upon which it was built.

As I see it, brotherhood, getting along with our neighbor, accepting him as an equal and a friend, is the only hope for world peace and more important, for lasting peace.

I believe, in spite of such exceptions, that brotherhood is still shining through. I see brotherhood in my class-mates at school, working toward a common goal in education and playing to defend the honor of the school with hardly a thought of creed or color. I see the growing of a spirit of brotherhood in the wonderful work of the United Nations toward good feeling among nations.

If only the people of the world could get on the same team and work together to stamp out the common enemies of greed, fear, hate, and tyranny which infect our world with war, if we were all on brotherhood's team, the world would be a much firmer place on which to build the foundations of our life.

TELEVISION AND HOMEWORK

Phyllis Cahoon, '54

It seems that many people think that television has affected the student of today and has interfered with his schoolwork. Although television has been here for several years, there is still some feeling that it is to blame when homework isn't done.

As the past few years have gone by, students have learned to accept television, not as a novelty, but in the same category as radio. They realize that homework must be done, and the great majority plan television around their homework and will not allow television to interfere; the student who doesn't care probably won't do his homework under any circumstances.

Television has been blamed for everything from poor eyesight to neglect of homework. As soon as another invention is popularized, it will have to carry the responsibility for various problems. If we would realize that television is a form of entertainment and instruction instead of a hindrance to mankind, we could begin to use it as a valuable asset to the student of today.

SCHOOL NEWS

FACULTY CHANGES

Carolyn Bamber, '54

There have been three new teachers at Scituate High School this year. Mr. Herschel Benson, who is a graduate of the University of Illinois, is now teaching algebra and boys' gym classes. Before coming to Scituate, Mr. Benson taught at Topsfield and Mansfield.

The other new teachers have positions in the Junior High. They are Mr. Richard Hands, a graduate of Boston University, and Mr. Ralph Merrill, a graduate of Tufts College. Mr. Hands formerly was a teacher at Duxbury, and Mr. Merrill at Plainville.

BLUE AND WHITE WEEK

Shirley Walsh, '54

Blue and White Week officially began Monday, March 9, but because of national elections our opening assembly was held on Tuesday. Mr. Froberger led the opening exercises. The meeting was then turned over to Richard Wiley, president of the Student Council. The Governor's Proclamation was read by Robert Hayes of the Junior High. Richard Wiley then introduced Judy Lawson, who explained the assemblies of the week. Next, Elizabeth Grassie told of the Essay and Poster Contests which were to be held. Bill Vines, president of the Key Club, described the two Good Sportsmanship Awards to be given to any boy (not in the Key Club) and any girl who had given outstanding service for the school without recognition. He also explained the rules of the Photography Contest sponsored by the Key Club. Beth Bigelow spoke about the S. A. Dance to be held Friday evening as a climax to the week's activities. Lastly, Letitia Bernard told us how we could all make Blue and White Week a success.

The slogan for the week was "Loyalty, Honor, Success." Blue emblems with an "L" in white were given to all members of the school.

The closing assembly was held on Friday. Charles Goddard, the vice-president of the Student Council, spoke on the success of the week. He then introduced John Locke, vice-president of the Key Club, who announced the winners of the Good Sportsmanship Awards: Judy Lawson and Matthew Brown; and the winners of the Photography Contest: Matthew Brown, Phyllis Cahoon, and Richard Mitchell. Phyllis Cahoon awarded the prizes for the Essay and Poster Contests as follows: first prize in the Essay Contest, Gail Purslow; second prize, Lois Newcomb; first prize in the Poster Contest, Gail Purslow; second prize, Adele Galbreath. In the Junior High Edward Dunham won first prize in the Essay Contest and Joyce Perry won first prize in the Poster Contest. Gladys Clapp urged all to attend the S. A. Dance, which was to be the climax of the week. At the dance Charlie Valine and his orchestra played and various talented students presented specialty numbers.

ALL-SCHOOL PRODUCTION

Sue Taggart, '53

THE annual all-school production was "Waltz Time," by Charles George. The success of this musical comedy was due chiefly to the fine cast and to the able direction of Miss Gile and Miss Reynolds, with the assistance of Mr. Hands. The cast included Donald Jenney as Kirby Stevens, a young musician; Phyllis Cahoon as Sue Oliver, who believed in Kirby's ambitions; Jacklyn White as Lilac, the colored maid; Diane Prouty as Mrs. Lucy Stevens, mother of Kirby and Jefferson; Ronald Howard as Gilmore Scott, a young man-about-town; Carolyn Macy as Patricia Summers, a young old-maid; Patricia Newcomb as Gretchen Dale, the girl next door; Donald Hollis as Jefferson Stevens, Kirby's older brother; and David Staffeld as Lester Templeton, a music publisher. Friends of Kirby were played by Judith Taylor, Peter Sharp, Carolyn Locklin, Charles Goddard, Gail McCarthy, and Maureen Fitzgerald.

Credit should also go to stage manager, Charles Goddard; and prompters Judy Bongarzone, Ronald Howard, and David Staffeld. Scenery was by Miss Shmauk and Mr. Burgess, and costumes were supervised by Mrs. O'Donnell.

GLEE CLUBS

Shirley Walsh, '54

This year the Girls' Glee Club had many new members, and there were twenty-four in the Boys' Glee Club. The girls were divided into two groups as usual, the Freshmen and Sophomores comprising one group and the Juniors and Seniors, the other. Each group met every Thursday for two periods.

Last summer Miss Reynolds, our director, attended the Fred Waring Workshop at the University of New Hampshire. She returned in the fall with many new songs and ideas.

On the last day of school before the Christmas holidays a group of girls sang Christmas carols in the corridors. All of the senior girls sang at the Christmas assembly program. Both boys' and girls' groups participated in the Spring Concert. They will also sing at the Baccalaureate Service and Graduation exercises.

BAND

Ruth Mitchell, '54

The Scituate High School Band and Orchestra both had a very successful year. The band started its activities by playing at the football rallies and at two of the home football games. On October 24, the SHS band gave an excellent performance at the Plymouth County Teachers' Convention at Brockton High School.

The All-State Band met at Springfield this last year from February 12 to 14. Fred Gleason with his drums and Tom Whittaker with his clarinet were members of this 150 piece band.

On February 27, six of the band members went to Randolph High School to participate with the All-Southeastern Massachusetts Band. These members were Fred Gleason, drums; Tom Whittaker, Beth Gunn, and David Dwyer, clarinets; and Connie Bailey and Richard Boyle, trombones.

The Scituate High Band played at the Annual Spring Concert at Scituate High School on March 27. On April 8, the band played in the Grand Ball Room of the Hotel Statler for the International Council for Exceptional Children.

On May 9, the Scituate Band again made a good showing at the Southeastern Music Festival which was held at Norwell.

ORCHESTRA

First row: R. Kirwood, R. Prouty, B. Sylvester, J. Fisher, C. Bailey, E. Gunn, T. Whittaker, D. Dwyer. Second row: Mr. Dickinson, D. Dooner, D. Jenney, D. Sherman, M. Laidlaw, C. Rodgers, P. Sharp, F. Gleason, C. Rencurrel, D. Paradis.

ORCHESTRA

Ruth Mitchell, '54

The orchestra gave their first performance of the year between the acts of the All-School Play on November 21. They made their next public appearance on December 23, when they played the familiar carols at the Christmas assembly. On January 12, they played for the Kiwanis Club at their installation of officers. At the Spring Concert they gave their usual fine performance. In May the orchestra played several selections between the acts of the Senior Class Play. Their final appearance of the school year was on June 10, when they provided the music for the graduation exercises.

STUDENT COUNCIL

First row: B. Gunn, P. Cahoon, R. Wiley, C. Goddard, D. Cohen, G. Clapp. Second row: N. Murphy, L. Bernard, M. Glavin, J. Lawson, E. Glavin, R. Ford, R. Hayes. Third row: D. Roy, N. Towle, R. Howard.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council held a meeting last spring to elect the present officers: Richard Wiley, president; Charles Goddard, vice president; Phyllis Cahoon, secretary; and Donald Cohen, treasurer. Other members of the council were elected by each class. The Senior representatives are Richard Wiley, Richard Ford, Maureen Glavin, Neil Murphy, Judith Lawson, Elizabeth Grassie, Neil Towle, and Beth Bigelow. The Juniors include Charles Goddard, Gladys Clapp, Phyllis Cahoon, and Donald Roy. The Sophomores are Elizabeth Glavin, Donald Cohen, Robert Howard, and Letitia Bernard. Freshman members are Michael Coyne and Lawrence Mayo. Junior High representatives are Elizabeth Gunn, Grade 8, and Robert Hayes, Grade 7. Miss Harrington and Mr. Froberger are our advisers.

In September the president appointed several committees, consisting of Student Council members, to help with the various duties of the council. The Rally Committee, Elizabeth Grassie, chairman, planned the football rallies. Elizabeth Grassie and Charles Goddard chose students to inspect the locker rooms. Phyllis Cahoon, chairman, was assisted by Gladys Clapp and Lawrence Mayo on the Attendance Committee. The Ways and Means Committee, Neil Murphy, chairman, planned ways of raising money. The Assembly Committee, Judy Lawson, chairman, arranged the assemblies for the coming year. The Refreshment Committee, which sold refreshments at the football games, consisted of Elizabeth Grassie, Maureen Glavin, Phyllis Cahoon, Robert Howard, Letitia Bernard, and Beth Bigelow.

On December 4, 1952, four senior representatives from Scituate High School attended the convention in Somerset of the Southeastern Branch of the Student Council Association.

This year the Student Council drew up an amendment to the Student Association Constitution concerning the drum majorettes. It was voted that the drum majorettes receive a letter for their services.

A series of record hops were held under the sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher Association assisted by the Student Council. The dances were held every other Saturday night with prominent disc jockeys providing the entertainment.

Blue and White Week, sponsored by the Student Council, was very successful this year. Prizes were won by many of the students in various fields. The annual S. A. dance, which concluded the week, proved to be very successful.

The Student Council is always open to suggestions from the student body and extends an invitation to interested members to visit our meetings.

PRO MERITO

Elizabeth Grassie, '53

THE members of this year's Pro Merito Society were inducted in May, 1952, during a school assembly. The members are as follows: Neil Towle, Imperator; Donald Jenney, Ductor; Elizabeth Grassie, Scriba; Richard Wylie, Aerari Praefectus; Judith Lawson, Arline Nichols, John Nitzsche, Neil Murphy, Walter Stewart, and Douglas Mendell.

In October the society helped sponsor the annual Pro Merito — Key Club Dance.

The annual mid-year induction of the society was held on March 20 in the High School Auditorium. The following new members were inducted: Beth Bigelow, Hugh MacArthur, Lois Newcomb, and William Vines. Following the induction there was a reception for Pro Merito members. Entertainment and refreshments were also provided.

Juniors eligible for Pro Merito were inducted at a school assembly in May.

First row: N. Murphy, Russell Prouty, W. Vines, Richard Prouty, J. Locke, D. Jenney. Second row: R. Mitchell, N. Towle, J. Nitzsche, W. Stewart, C. Goddard, R. Wiley, Mr. Stewart. Third row: K. Virtue, T. Whittaker, N. Walker, D. Cohen, K. Brebner, P. Stewart, R. Stewart.

KEY CLUB

Edward Newcomb, '55

At the final meeting of the Key Club last year, officers were chosen for the school year of 1952-1953. William Vines was elected president; John Locke, vice president; Richard Prouty, treasurer; and Russell Prouty, secretary.

This year the Key Club was honored by having three members who received service awards from the school. John Locke, Richard Prouty, and Russell Prouty were the receivers of these awards.

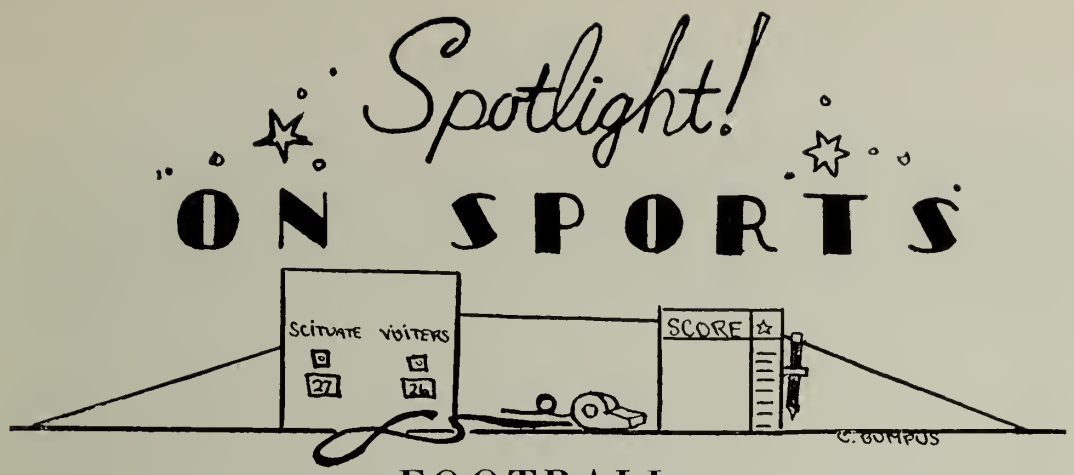
Since the school year opened, the Key Club members have performed many services for the school. They picked up the litter from the school grounds after each of the home football games. They helped with the sale of tickets at the basketball games. During the recent Blue and White Week the Key Club presented awards for outstanding sportsmanship in the school. They also conducted a photo contest, offering three prizes.

The Key Club have tried this year to show their appreciation of the service men of Scituate High. They are sending them information about all important events and other things that they might enjoy.

All these activities are planned with the idea of making Scituate High a better school. They have come about through the cooperation of the organization under the direction of their adviser, Mr. Edward Stewart.



FOOTBALL

Matthew Brown, '53

SCITUATE's 1952 football team had a successful campaign in the South Shore League. It finished second to Hanover, nearly the best club in Class D. Scituate's record included wins over Marshfield, Archbishop Williams, and Cohasset. Scituate lost only to Hanover, Rockland, and Weston.

The team had several memorable afternoons, such as when they pulled the Marshfield game out in the final minutes with a final score 7-6. In the Archbishop Williams game, the team looked great, defeating the Braintree eleven, 6-0. Against Cohasset, Scituate hit its offensive peak, clobbering the Cohasset boys 33-13. In this game, the famed "Scituate Blue Devils" played a whole period.

The Hanover game, a heartbreaking defeat because of Scituate's fine showing in the second half, was the season's low point. Many members of the team would like to replay this game.

Coach Johnson is losing 14 seniors from this year's eleven. Although these graduating seniors will be missed, Coach Johnson and Coach Driscoll have many promising underclassmen. Those graduating are Walter Stewart, Aram Brazilian, Dick Loughman, Skip Brebner, Bob O'Hern, Neil Murphy, Neil Towle, Doug and Dick Mendell, Dick Ford, John Nitzsche, Bob Harris, Tom Coyne, and Mat Brown.

The 1953 football season looks very promising with ends, Tom Whittaker and Norm Walker; and linesmen, Bill Colton, Donny Cohen, Rich Green, Dean Shea, and Jimmy Breen all returning. In the backfield, the Prouty boys, Russ, Rich, and Jim, Donny Roy, Peter Stewart, Larry Basler, John Gardner, and Bob Stewart will be back. Also, David Roberts, the manager, is returning.

Here's hoping that Coach Johnson and the team achieve the great season they deserve.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Matthew Brown, '53

SCITUATE's basketball team finished in third place in the South Shore League, although they had a fine season (12-6). Scituate also made the finals in the Brockton Tourney, only to be beaten by Marshfield.

The prospects for next year are very good, with Donny Roy, Chuck Goddard, Pete Stewart, Norm Walker, and Rich Green returning. This combination should take the State Championship next year, as Marshfield did in '53.

Coach Stewart is losing several fine hoopsters, however. Walt Stewart, Mike Veiga, Bob Dwyer, Dick Loughman, and Bill Vines will be lost because of graduation.

Scituate's 1952 baseball team had a fine season, finishing in third place in the South Shore League with a 5-2 record.

This year, Coach Stewart has high hopes of returning to the Southeastern Massachusetts baseball finals in Fenway Park, as was done in 1951. The returning men from last year's squad are Bob Dwyer, pitcher: Dick and Doug Mendell, catchers: Dick Loughman, Donny Roy, Charlie Goddard, and Pete Stewart, infielders; and Dick Wiley, Norm Walker, and Russ Prouty, outfielders.

FIELD HOCKEY

Nancy Taggart, '54

Although the Scituate High girls' field hockey team lost the South Shore Championship for the first time in several years, the season was an enjoyable and eventful one. Besides playing seven league games, the team attended the Hingham Clinic twice to learn more about the skills of the game. Also the team was invited to play at Plymouth.

All the games were exciting. The three most memorable were those played against Hanover, Marshfield, and Duxbury. The Hanover game was scoreless at the end of the first half, but in the last few seconds of the game, Scituate rallied and won by one point. The Marshfield and Duxbury games were not so successful. Scituate lost to Marshfield 1-0 and to Duxbury 2-0.

Much of the credit for the team's fine showing is given to Mrs. Bauer for her very capable coaching and also for the hard work of Judith Lawson, manager, and Gladys Clapp, assistant manager.

In the eight games played, seven goals were scored to the opponent's five. Yvonne Mongeau was high scorer with four of the seven goals; next came Ann Breen with two goals, and Nancy Taggart with one.

The members of the Varsity were as follows: left wing, Alice Mitchell; left inner, Yvonne Mongeau; center forward, Ann Breen, captain; right inner, Nancy Taggart; right wing, Mary Sue Curran; left half, Carolyn Bamber; center half, Gail Brazilian; right half, Sylvia Dauphinee; left back, Shirley Walsh; right back, Ruth Mitchell; goal keeper, Joan McEleney, and Barbara D'Amelio, substitute.

The second team should be congratulated for their hard work every afternoon at practice, giving the varsity fine competition. They had a successful season with two wins, one tie, and three losses. The high scorer for J. V. was Mary Lou Riordon with two goals. The other scorer was Connie Nitzsche with one goal.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

First row: G. Purslow, S. Walsh, N. Taggart, Y. Mongeau, captain; A. Breen, C. Bamber, M. Curran. Second row: L. Fleming, A. Mitchell, M. Smith, A. McEleney, C. Macy, M. Ryan. R. Mitchell, L. Galbreath, Mrs. Bauer, coach. Third row: J. Petrie, M. Blanchard, P. Gleason, N. Bowser, C. Grassie, E. Glavin, E. O'Donnell, B. Blanchard, D. Brigham, J. Turner.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Ann Breen, '53

The 1953 girls' basketball team finished the season in third place in the league.

Mrs. Bauer deserves much credit for her day-by-day coaching of both good-sportsmanship and basketball. Lillian Galbreath, manager, and Lila May Fleming, assistant manager, also deserve credit for their hard work.

The Varsity team was made up of Captain Yvonne Mongeau, Ann Breen, Nancy Taggart, Mary Sue Curran, Carolyn Bamber, Shirley Walsh, Mary Ryan, Ruth Mitchell, Gail Purslow, Alice Mitchell, and Carolyn Macy.

The high scorers for the season were Ann Breen with 194 points, Nancy Taggart with 176 points, and Yvonne Mongeau with 135 points. The guards should be praised, also, for giving Scituate one of the best defensive teams in the league.

Two very exciting games were played with Marshfield and Duxbury. Scituate lost to Marshfield by 1 point and beat Duxbury by a lone point. In the Duxbury game, with three minutes left to go, Scituate was behind by 1 point. A Scituate basket was scored, and with one minute left to go Scituate froze the ball. The exciting game ended with a Scituate victory of 1 point.

The second team deserves credit, not only for faithfully attending the practices, but also for providing the first team with keen competition. The members of the Junior Varsity were Margo Smith, Nancy Bowser, Joan Turner, Barbara Blanchard, Ellen O'Donnell, Mary Blanchard, Carolyn Grassie, Elizabeth Glavin, Phyllis Gleason, Joan Petrie, and Deborah Brigham.

TENNIS

Elizabeth Grassie, '53

Last year's tennis team, although not winning all its matches, had a successful year. Games were scheduled with Duxbury, Braintree, and Hingham. The Scituate team won both matches with Duxbury but lost to Braintree and Hingham.

The members of the team were as follows: Jane Burnham, manager; Shirley Pettersen, captain; Janice Leighton, first singles; Elizabeth Grassie, second singles; Evelyn Jenney, third singles. Joan Perry, Rosemary Manning, Barbara Quirk, Barbara D'Amelio, Shirley Pettersen, Judy Lawson, Carolyn Macy, Priscilla Fraser, Teresa Dowd, and Ann Dacey were the doubles players.

This year's tennis team is looking forward to a successful season. Plymouth will be included this year in the list of schools that Scituate plays during the tennis season.

CHEERLEADERS

Isabel Gleason, '53

When September of 1952 rolled around, two groups of girls could often be seen on the fields after school. The first group were hitting balls back and forth, trying to become stars for the field hockey team. The second group consisted of would-be cheerleaders, all trying to unify their arm, leg, and voice movements into some sort of coordination.

Not too long afterwards, tryouts were held and the following girls were elected to represent Scituate High School as cheerleaders: Isabel Gleason, captain; and Maureen Glavin, Elizabeth Grassie, Sue Taggart, Lois Newcomb, and Maureen Stark. Phyllis Cahoon and Gladys Clapp were chosen as alternates. The judges were Mrs. Bauer, Mrs. O'Donnell, and Miss Giles.

The very same afternoon the girls started their long sessions of practices so they would be in top condition for the games. They all worked hard with commendable results.

At approximately the middle of the 1952 football season, a new method was devised by which the two alternates could also earn their varsity letters. From that time they took turns with the regular cheerleaders other than the captain. When awards came out, the eight girls received well-deserved varsity letters.

S.H.S. had successful seasons in football, field hockey, and basketball. The teams roused enthusiasm by their spirited play, and the cheerleaders all took their jobs to heart and gave their best.

SOFTBALL

Judith Lawson, '53

The 1952 softball team ended the season with a record of two wins and five losses. The season could be considered a success, however, because of the fine spirit and enthusiasm exhibited by the girls.

As a reward for their service, sixteen girls received varsity letters and four girls received certificates. Those receiving letters were Bonney Austin, Audrey Baron, Captain Ann Breen, Janice Cooper, Pat McAuliffe, Alice Mitchell, Ruth Mitchell, Yvonne Mongeau, Gail Purslow, Jackie White, Mary Ryan, Maureen Stark, Nancy Taggart, Shirley Walsh, Gail Brazilian, and Sue Taggart, who was manager of the team. Carolyn Bamber, Joan Fitzsimmons, Joyce Petrie, and Gladys Clapp, assistant manager, received certificates.

Dad: "Did you help Mom do the dishes?"
Sue: "Yes, I washed them."
Dot: "Yes, I dried them."
Joe: "Yes, I picked up the pieces!"

Paul: "Our teacher talks to herself."
Jack: "So does ours, but she thinks we're listening."

Cop: "The horn on your car must be broken."
Nitch: "Oh, it's just indifferent."
Cop: "What do you mean?"
Nitch: "It just doesn't give a hoot!"

Etiquette:The art of learning to yawn with your mouth closed.

Officer: "How come you knocked this man down?"
Mongeau: "I never came near him. I stopped my car to let him pass in front of me and he fainted!"

Teacher: "It gives me great pleasure to mark you 85 on your exam."
Student: "Why don't you make it 100 — and give yourself a real thrill?"

One of our senior girls was playing a hot jazz record and said to her pop: "Oh-o-o, have you ever heard anything like it?"
Pop: "Not since I heard a truck full of hogs run into a truck loaded with empty cans, honey."

One of the hot rodders of S. H. S. was taking his first piano lesson. When he saw the pedals on the piano, he asked the teacher, "When do I put on the brakes?"

Whatever troubles Adam had,
In bygone days of yore,
None could say, when he cracked a joke,
"I've heard that one before."

Teacher: "John, your grammar is terrible."
John: "I don't care if you're always picking on myself, but leave my parents alone!"

Landlady trying to get a new tenant in the house: "This is a nice room. The last man that lived here invented a peculiar explosive."
Prospect: "I suppose the spots on this wall are explosive?"
Landlady: "No they're the man."

Bill: "How can you communicate with a fish?"
Bob: "Drop it a line!"

Pete: "I can spell a word with over 100 letters in it!"
Paul: "Yeah, what is it?"
Pete: "Post Office."

Teacher, trying to teach an algebra student how to subtract. "How many fingers do you have?"
Howie: "Ten."
Teacher: "And if four were missing, what would you have?"
Howie: "No music lessons!"

Teacher: "The great painters could change a smiling face to a frown with one stroke of a brush."
A Voice: "So can't my mom!"

Golf Pro: "Tee the ball."
Beginner: "Sure I see it, why all the baby talk?"

Roger Kirwood's definition of a child:
"One who stands halfway between an adult and the T.V. set!"

Angy: "I heard of a fellow who ate 6 dozen pancakes!"
Pat: "Ooooh. how waffle!"

Sergeant on firing range with recruits from Scituate: "Fire at will, men!"
One recruit tossed his gun and ran away as fast as he could.
The sergeant yelled, "Where's he going?"
One of the others yelled, "He's Will!"

Mother: "What do you say to the nice man?"
Kid: "Peel it!"

Man: "My soup has a twig in it."
Waiter: "I wouldn't be surprised; we have branches all over the city."

2nd Teacher: "Oh, my! Is he very ill?"
1st Teacher: "Certainly not. He just can't spell it."

If you don't think these jokes keep up with the times,
Make up your own and send them to the CHIMES.

The Mark of Quality Printing

Printing is one method of creating an impression and its impact remains indefinitely. Being acutely aware of this fact, we at Sanderson Brothers strive always to make that impression a good impression . . . one that grows old gracefully.
